Mysteries of Christian Initiation: There is to be preparatory instruction for parents and godparents prior to the celebration of the Mysteries of Christian Initiation – Baptism, Chrismation, and Eucharist. It is desirable that Christian Initiation be celebrated together with the Sunday Divine Liturgy, as the entire faith community welcomes its newest member. Those selected to be sponsors must be persons who are qualified to be a sponsor according to the norms of Church law and practice.

Crowning in Marriage: A six month period of preparation is to precede the marriage. Couples are to meet with the pastor before other arrangements are scheduled. The Pre-Cana Program offered by the Archeparchy in the spring of each year is a required part of the marriage preparation for all couples.

Holy Anointing & Pastoral Care of the Ill: Please contact the pastor prior to surgery or in the event of illness to require the Mystery of Holy Anointing. When you or a family member are hospitalized or enter a nursing home or other facility, please inform the pastor. Due to privacy regulations, hospitals and other facilities do not always notify the pastor; and it is best for the family.

Mystery of Repentance (Confessions): Saturdays: 3:00 pm (Portage) and 4:30 pm (Beaverdale/Dunlo). Also, ½ hour before services [except Sunday], and by appointment. Confessions are in the priest's sacristy area, before an icon of Christ, before whom we are confessing our sinfulness.

Opportunities for Stewardship: Parishioners are asked to make a commitment of Time, Talent, and Treasure... Work Parties are scheduled the first Saturday of each month, and Church Cleaning is scheduled the first Monday, unless a Church Feast Day falls on the same date.

A Parable of Forgiveness

Christian faith means following our Lord Jesus Christ within the context of the Church. It involves a very different “environment”, a very different understanding by which to evaluate and direct our lives. Because of this, parables were often used by Jesus to introduce us to this distinct set of values and purposes which are so unfamiliar to our human expectations and resources. By using features that are familiar to our lives and circumstances, the parables would then lead us to insights and hopefully to some grasp of the Kingdom of God, and its meaning and intention for our lives.

Today’s parable [Matthew 18:23-35] employs a contrast of a hopelessly large debt which is forgiven of a servant, and a very small debt owed to him by a fellow servant which he does not forgive. Forgiveness is the “native language” of the Kingdom of God and the life of the Church. Today’s parable serves to remind us that the forgiveness we have received from Christ is the only way out of the “dead end” of sin. And yet to accept this forgiveness of Christ requires that we likewise share forgiveness with others. [From Fr. John Custer, The Gospels, pp. 135

Many, Happy Years!

Congratulations and prayerful best wishes are extended to Randy Paul Spaid and Angelica Theresa Fedorko who were united in the Mystery of Crowning in Marriage at Saints Peter & Paul Church, Portage on Saturday, August 19.

“O God, our God, You came to Cana in Galilee and blessed the marriage there; now bless your servants who through your providence are united in the common life of marriage. Bless the daily course of their life; fill their life with good things; and accept their crowns into your kingdom, keeping them pure, blameless, and above reproach.”

[Blessing, Holy Mystery of Crowning in Marriage]

A Prayer of Blessing for Students and Teachers

We offer our prayers and encouragement as students return to classes in the coming weeks to begin the new academic year. We also remember teachers and others who assist in educating students at this important time in their lives. We offer this prayer for our students that the coming school year be blessed with growth in wisdom, knowledge and maturity:

“O Lord our God and Creator, you have honored humanity with your own image. Now, O Lord, open the hearts, the minds, and the lips of your servants, our students who are beginning a new school year, so that they may receive the power of your law, and may understand the knowledge which shall be taught them, to the glory of your all-holy name and for the building up of your holy Church. Deliver them from every hostile power; preserve them in the true faith and in holiness all the days of their lives, that they may increase in wisdom and in the fulfilling of your commandments. And so, being prepared in this manner, they may also glorify your all-holy name, and become an heir of your kingdom. For you are God, mighty in mercy, and gracious in strength, and to You is due all glory, honor and worship Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen”
