Mysteries of Christian Initiation: There is to be preparatory instruction for parents and godparents prior to the celebration of the Mysteries of Christian Initiation – Baptism, Chrismation, and Eucharist. It is desirable that Christian Initiation be celebrated together with the Sunday Divine Liturgy, as the entire faith community welcomes its newest member. Those selected to be sponsors must be persons who are qualified to be a sponsor according to the norms of Church law and practice.

Crowning in Marriage: A six month period of preparation is to precede the marriage. Couples are to meet with the pastor before other arrangements are scheduled. The Pre-Cana Program offered by the Archeparchy in the spring of each year is a required part of the marriage preparation for all couples.

Holy Anointing & Pastoral Care of the Ill: Please contact the pastor prior to surgery or in the event of illness to require the Mystery of Holy Anointing. When you or a family member are hospitalized or enter a nursing home or other facility, please inform the pastor. Due to privacy regulations, hospitals and other facilities do not always notify the pastor; and it is best for the family.

Mystery of Repentance (Confessions): Saturdays: 3:00 pm (Portage) and 4:30 pm (Beaverdale/Dunlo). Also, ½ hour before services [except Sunday], and by appointment. Confessions are in the priest's sacristy area, before an icon of Christ, before whom we are confessing our sinfulness.

Opportunities for Stewardship: Parishioners are asked to make a commitment of Time, Talent, and Treasure... Work Parties are scheduled the first Saturday of each month, and Church Cleaning is scheduled the first Monday, unless a Church Feast Day falls on the same date.

The Lenten Journey

On this Third Sunday of the Great Fast the message of the Cross of our Lord is highlighted. In the Gospel for this Sunday of the Veneration of the Cross the meaning of the Cross is applied in a very personal way. The Gospel reading opens with Jesus proclaiming, "If any man would come after me let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow me" [Mark 8:24]. This is essential to being a follower of Jesus. And the task of taking up one's Cross takes on a new level of meaning during Lent.

Also, this week on Friday, March 9 we celebrate the memory of the Forty Martyrs of Sebaste. The account of their martyrdom is particularly inspiring. They were sentenced to spend a winter night exposed on a frozen lake. In the morning it was discovered that they were still alive. Their legs were then broken and they were thrown into a fire, with the ashes thrown into the river. Their endurance of the extremes of ice and fire encourages us in our Lenten efforts.

Supporting Seminarians, Remembering Loved Ones

The following is a news release provided by the Community Foundation for the Alleghenies. We are happy to acknowledge the educational foundations established by parishioner Michael Mazur, including his generous fund in support of seminary education at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Pittsburgh.

When Michael Mazur's wife Alice died in February of 2016, his life changed – and so did his outlook. "After my wife passed, money didn't mean too much anymore," the Lilly resident said. "I wanted to give away everything and put it to good use. That's the way I want to live my life now.

Mazur, turned to the Community Foundation for the Alleghenies in Johnstown for help in making his philanthropic wish a reality. CFA manages a wide variety of charitable funds that distribute grants to nonprofit organizations and scholarships to students.

Mazur has created three endowment funds through the Community Foundation. The Alice McGivney Mazur Memorial Scholarship Fund awards students who plan to study education, as Alice did. The second is named after his Mazur's sister – the Ann Mazur Memorial Scholarship Fund also provides scholarships to students, especially those in financial need. Mazur's latest fund is the Anna and Michael Mazur, Sr. and Margaret and Chester McGivney, Sr. Memorial Fund, which was created to help support seminary education at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Pittsburgh.

Distributions from the fund will be made annually to the seminary, beginning in January of 2019, which will then use the funding to help support students most in financial need. "I wanted to get some young men interested in the priesthood to build the church up," said Mazur. "I'd like to see the church prosper and continue into the future."

The seminary is happy to help support Mazur's philanthropy. "The Byzantine Catholic Seminary is blessed by the support of many thoughtful benefactors," said seminary rector, Very Rev. Robert M. Pipta. "Mr. Mazur's goal of assisting needy seminarians with their educational expenses should bring much appreciated relief to eparchial seminarian burses and to those seminarians who are required to shoulder even a portion of their tuition costs. The Seminary is pleased to coordinate these most generous and magnanimous funds for the good of our sponsoring eparchies and their seminarians."

The fund is named in memory of Mazur's parents and his wife's parents. "I like to see their memory preserved – maybe I'm sentimental that way," he said. "Once you're gone, you're gone. You have to leave something behind to do some good in this world. I don't want them to be forgotten."

Since the fund is a permanent endowment, it will continue to provide for the seminary into perpetuity, doing good far into the future.

"The bible says it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven," said Mazur, who attends Saints Peter and Paul Byzantine Catholic Church in Portage. "Well, I'm not rich. I had a few dollars. And I gave them all away."
