Mysteries of Christian Initiation: There is to be preparatory instruction for parents and godparents prior to the celebration of the Mysteries of Christian Initiation – Baptism, Chrismation, and Eucharist. It is desirable that Christian Initiation be celebrated together with the Sunday Divine Liturgy, as the entire faith community welcomes its newest member. Those selected to be sponsors must be persons who are qualified to be a sponsor according to the norms of Church law and practice.

Crowning in Marriage: A six month period of preparation is to precede the marriage. Couples are to meet with the pastor before other arrangements are scheduled. The Pre-Cana Program offered by the Archeparchy in the spring of each year is a required part of the marriage preparation for all couples.

Holy Anointing & Pastoral Care of the Ill: Please contact the pastor prior to surgery or in the event of illness to require the Mystery of Holy Anointing. When you or a family member are hospitalized or enter a nursing home or other facility, please inform the pastor. Due to privacy regulations, hospitals and other facilities do not always notify the pastor; and it is best for the family to notify the pastor.

Mystery of Repentance (Confessions): Saturdays: 3:00 pm (Portage) and 4:30 pm (Beaverdale/Dunlo). Also, ½ hour before services [except Sunday], and by appointment. Confessions are in the priest's sacristy area, before an icon of Christ, before whom we are confessing our sinfulness.

Opportunities for Stewardship: Parishioners are asked to make a commitment of Time, Talent, and Treasure... Work Parties are scheduled the first Saturday of each month, and Church Cleaning is scheduled the first Monday, unless a Church Feast Day falls on the same date.

The Raising of the Son of the Widow of Nain

We hear in the Gospel reading today an episode which occurs only in Saint Luke's Gospel. The Raising of the Son of the Widow of Nain [Luke 7:11-16] echoes the closing verse in last Sunday's Gospel, "Be compassionate even as your Father is compassionate" [Luke 6:36]. Our Lord Jesus Christ is the expression of the compassion of the Father in the most visible and direct way. When Jesus beholds the mother of the young man who was being carried in a funeral procession, "He had compassion on her and said to her, 'Do no weep'" [Luke 7:11-16].

The compassion of Jesus brings the boy back to physical life. In this victory for Christ over death we find a foreshadowing of Christ's own Resurrection. Only then would the victory over death be complete. He came and conquered death and rose not simply to restore our natural human life. Rather we are raised with Christ to a new life, a new level of existence. This is described by the Apostle Paul in his teaching on the Resurrection in I Corinthians:

"So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown corruptible; it is raised incorruptible. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual one. For that which is corruptible must clothe itself with incorruptibility, and that which is mortal must clothe itself with immortality" [I Corinthians 15:42, 44, 53].

In today's Apostolic Reading, the Apostle Paul reflections on his conversion and his call and commissioning as an apostle [Galatians 1:11-19]. When he met the risen Lord Jesus on the road to Damascus, he was entrusted with the mission of preaching the Gospel to the Gentiles. Through this encounter, by virtue of the power of the Risen Lord, he was indeed "raised up" and given new life as an apostle and witness of the Resurrection. So also our encounter with the Risen Lord in the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, restores and renews us and equips us as witnesses and messengers of Christ.

Annual Clergy Retreat This Week

Father Jim and Deacon Dan Perich are attending the Clergy Retreat this week, from October 7-11 at Antiochian Village in Ligonier. The Retreat Director is Most Reverend Bishop Gerald F. Kicanas, Bishop Emeritus of the Latin Diocese of Tucson, Arizona. Please remember in your prayers the priests and deacons taking part in the retreat. You will be remembered in our prayers during this time.

In the event of an emergency for the anointing of the sick this week you may contact any of the local Catholic priests. Thank you for your prayers during the annual clergy retreat.

Eastern Christian Formation Classes

Classes for Pre-School/K through high school meet on Sunday following Divine Liturgy [10:15-11:15 am. If you anticipate your child's absence, please inform the catechist prior to class. Whenever a child is absent parents are to review the lesson for that week with the students. If you would like to volunteer to bring something for this light refreshment provided before classes, please inform your child's catechist. We ask for your continued prayers for our Catechists, and students.

PARISH NEWS & COMING EVENTS

Maintenance Projects

Several areas of the concrete walkways entering the church, both in the front and the lower side entrance, are being replaced. This work is being done because of “trip hazards”, from raised concrete, due to freezing and contraction over the years. Moyer Concrete of Salix is performing this work. Removal of the old concrete and placement of forms was done this past week. The concrete is to be poured on Monday.

Also, seven additional windows in the rectory are to be replaced during the fall of 2018 by MW Petryshak Construction. This is part of the gradual replacement of windows throughout the rectory. These seven additional windows will substantially complete this project.

Thank you for your contributions and support to allow upkeep and maintenance of the parish buildings and grounds.
